

Why Train with Rockwell Tactical?

Rockwell Tactical instructors have a Professionalism, Variety, and Attitude that's hard to find in today's world.

Professionalism

From the mountains of Afghanistan, to the plate racks of your local 3 Gun match, our instructors are experienced in the latest techniques to help you excel. A cadre of US Army Special forces instructors, Marine Instructors, and civilian instructors, they've not only been there, but they'll help YOU learn how to do it.

Variety

Our instructors have a wide range of skills, and it shows in our diverse class offerings. Whether you're interested in pistol, rifle, shotgun, or learning the most effective ways to carry a concealed weapon, Rockwell's instructors are here to help you succeed.

Rockwell Instructors also teach a wide range of medical classes, from basic Shooter First Aid, all the way to multi-day trauma level field care - all written and taught by US Army Special Forces medics.

You can rest assured, wherever your interest lies, Rockwell Tactical can put a program together for you.

Attitude

All Rockwell Tactical instructors are seasoned professionals, who have your success in mind. Rockwell classes utilize multiple instructors, to ensure that even in a large class, no one is left behind, and everyone is driven to the level of success they wish to achieve.

Our goal is to make you the best shooter you can be, whether you're carrying a handgun for self defense, knocking down plates at a match, or simply trying to become a increase your knowledge level.
